Bob CORRITORE'S 'FROM THE VAULTS' Series
Historic blues recordings from Bob's vast archives!

Harmonica player/producer Bob Corritore lovingly assembled this collection of old school down home Southern blues and juke joint dance numbers, the rough-edged predecessors to modern Chicago Blues, all recorded in Phoenix, Arizona between 1995 and 2012 and drawn from Bob's vast vault of recordings.

When the 25-year-old Bob Coritore moved from Chicago to Phoenix in 1981, he never expected to be creating a Southwestern Mecca for the blues – it just worked out that way. Bob was soon joined by old friend Louisiana Red, and before long they were playing all over town. Drumer Chico Chism soon followed. Bob started doing a weekly blues radio show, and in 1991 he opened the now legendary blues club the Rhythm Room. He would book his favorite blues artists at the club and arrange a recording session, capturing numerous amazing performances, now available via Bob's "From The Vaults" series.

This album features exuberant performances by Honeyboy Edwards, T-Model Ford, Henry Townsend, Big Jack Johnson, Robert "Bilbo" Walker, Smokey Wilson, Tomcat Courtney, Dave Riley, Pecan Porter, and Al Garrett.
