

BOB CORRITORE & FRIENDS WOMEN IN BLUES SHOWCASE

This very special installment of Bob Corritore's "From the Vaults" series features great recordings from spectacular blues women from a wide geographic and stylistic spectrum. Featured vocalists include: hit making Gulf Coast legends Barbara Lynn and Carol Fran; the heavy Chicago Blues of Koko Taylor, well known as the Queen Of The Blues; Phoenix's soul/blues/gospel diva Francine Reed, who has toured for years in Lyle Lovett's band; vocal powerhouse Diunna Greenleaf from Houston Texas; the gentle wonderment of Tennessee's Valerie June, a rising star on the Americana scene who got a start street-busking at the King Biscuit Blues Festival; Mississippi's Shy Perry who's deceptive name and stature deliver a powerhouse Wang Dang Doodle; and Aliya Primer, the daughter of Chicago blues great John Primer, with her very first recording done with great authority at age 17!

Harmonica Ace/Produceer Bob Corritore has recorded all of these wonderful woman artists with great sensitivity to their stylistic and personal individuality. Behold a collection of spectacular, female voices, which collectively demonstrate both the undeniable power and empowering vulnerability of the feminine Blues voice.
