SOMEBODY PUT BAD LUCK ON ME

SOMEBODY PUT BAD LUCK ON ME is Bob Corritore's latest masterpiece collection of newly recorded songs featuring a spectacular offering of top blues artists on the scene today. Bob's brilliant harmonica work is the connecting thread, effortlessly tying together a great variety of blues styles and always serving the song.

Unlike Corritore's "From the Vaults" series albums, these are all freshly recorded tracks, and they reflect the diverse richness of today's blues world. Guest vocalists shine, and Corritore's production touch brings out different and extra cool aspects of each artist's performance. Listening to this album is like going to an awesome blues festival filled with one heartfelt performance after another.

The first single, "I'm Good As Gone" features blues icon and Grammy winner Bobby Rush. Co-produced by Bob Corritore and Clarke Rigsby, the lineup includes drum legend Steve Ferrone, organist Chester Thompson, and guitarists Dexter Allen and Jimi "Primetime" Smith, delivering a powerful and funky groove for vocalist Rush to work with. Harmonica ace Corritore sparsely teases his way around the vocals until it's time to explode for the solo.

The amazing list of featured vocalists includes Bobby Rush, Thornetta Davis, John Primer, Carl Weathersby, Johnny Rawls, Eugene "Hideaway" Bridges, Francine Reed, Tia Carroll, Oscar Wilson, Dianna Greenleaf, Jimi "Primetime" Smith, Willie Buck, Sugaray Rayford, and Lurrie Bell. In addition to the vocalists, this album features some of today's best blues instrumentalists, including Bob Margolin, Bob Stroger, Anthony Geraci, Ben Levin, Johnny Burgin, Kid Ramos, Billy Flynn, Bill Stuve, Fred Kaplan, Dave Keyes, Doug James, Johnny Main, Johny Rapp, Yahni Riley, Kedar Roy, Troy Sandow, Mike King,
